*OPENING PRAYER & THE LORD'S PRAYER (In Unison)

Lord God of hosts, who spoke to us in ancient times through the law and prophets, and who visited us in Jesus Christ, come now and make Your presence known in our midst through song and prayer and sermon. Remind us of our salvation, grant us mercy for all our sin, and renew Your Spirit within us, that we may rightly praise You and afterwards serve You, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who has taught us to pray, saying, "Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever." Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION

Invitation (Pastor)

Christ our Lord invites to His table all who love Him, who earnestly repent of their sin and seek to live in peace with one another. You do not have to be a member of CUMC to participate in the Lord's Supper. Even when we have been too busy to notice, God has been constantly loving us and encouraging us to grow in the light of His love. We can trust God with our deepest confession.

Prayer of Confession (In Unison)

Merciful God, we confess that we have not loved You with our whole heart. We have failed to be an obedient church. We have not done Your will, we have broken Your law, we have rebelled against Your love, we have not loved our neighbors, and we have not heard the cry of the needy. Forgive us, we pray. Free us for joyful obedience, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness

Pastor: Hear the good news: Christ died for us while we were Yet sinners; that proves God's love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

All: Glory to God! Amen.

SCRIPTURE Hebrews 4:1-11 (The Living Bible)

Although God's promise still stands – His promise that all may enter His place of rest – we ought to tremble with fear because some of you may be on the verge of failing to get there after all. For this wonderful news – the message that God wants to save us – has been given to us just as it was to those who lived in the time of Moses. But it didn't do them any good because they didn't believe it. They didn't mix it with faith. For only we who believe God can enter into His place of rest. He has said, "I have sworn in my anger that those who don't believe me will never get in," even though He has been ready and waiting for them since the world began.

We know He is ready and waiting because it is written that God rested on the seventh day of creation, having finished all that He had planned to make.

Even so they didn't get in, for God finally said, "They shall never enter My rest." Yet the promise remains and some get in – but not those who had the first chance, for they disobeyed God and failed to enter.

But He has set another time for coming in, and that time is now. He announced this through King David long years after man's first failure to enter, saying in the words already quoted, "Today when you hear Him calling, do not harden your hearts against Him."

This new place of rest he is talking about does not mean the land of Israel that Joshua led them into. If that were what God meant, He would not have spoken long afterwards about "today" being the time to get in. So there is a full complete rest still waiting for the people of God. Christ has already entered there. He is resting from His work, just as God did after the creation. Let us do our best to go into that place of rest, too, being careful not to disobey God as the children of Israel did, thus failing to get in.
