* OPENING PRAYER & LORD'S PRAYER (In Unison)

O God, through the power of Your Holy Spirit You are present in our lives, bringing us new life, hope in the midst of despair, growth through times of difficulty. It is through the healing power of the Holy Spirit that You seek to make us whole. Help us to sense the power of Your love in the unfolding of our lives, and to continue to open ourselves to the empowerment of the Holy Spirit, that we may know the joy You give to Your people. For we pray in Jesus' name, who taught us to pray, "Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

* PRAYER OF DEDICATION (In Unison)

May these gifts bring light to those who walk in darkness, hope to those who live in despair, and justice to those who are oppressed. Grant to each giver a sense of participation in the most important opportunity of all time: to share Your love with the world. To this end, we dedicate our offerings and ourselves. Amen.

SCRIPTURE Romans 15:1-13 (NLT)

We may know that these things make no difference, but we cannot just go ahead and do them to please ourselves. We must be considerate of the doubts and fears of those who think these things are wrong. We should please others. If we do what helps them, we will build them up in the Lord. For even Christ didn't please Himself. As the Scriptures say, "Those who insult you are also insulting me." Such things were written in the Scriptures long ago to teach us. They give us hope and encouragement as we wait patiently for God's promises.

May God, who gives this patience and encouragement, help you live in complete harmony with each other - each with the attitude of Christ Jesus toward each other. Then all of you can join together with one voice, giving praise and glory to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

So accept each other just as Christ has accepted you; then God will be glorified. Remember that Christ came as a servant to the Jews to show that God is true to the promises made to their ancestors. And He came so the Gentiles might also give glory to God for His mercies to them. That is what the psalmist meant when he wrote: "I will praise You among the Gentiles; I will sing praises to Your name."

And in another place it is written, "Rejoice, O you Gentiles, along with his people, the Jews."

And yet again, "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles; Praise Him, all you people of the earth."

And the prophet Isaiah said, "The heir to David's throne will come, and He will rule over the Gentiles. They will place their hopes on Him."

So I pray that God, who gives you hope, will keep you happy and full of peace as you believe in Him. May you overflow with hope through the power of the Holy Spirit.
