

through Jerusalem, they pressed on eagerly to worship Him. Three wise men led only by a star, arrived where now the newborn King was lying. Three wise men led only by a star, had found the hope of every longing heart. Brightest and best of the stars of the morning, Dawn on our midnight and lend us your aid; Star of the East the horizon adorning, Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid. Jesus.

REJOICE IN HIS COMING

Rejoice in His coming, all people of earth! Be glad in your King on the day of His birth! Bow down to the One all creation obeys! Lift up the Lord Jesus and crown Him with praise! The glory of heaven now lights up the sky With news of great joy from our Father on high. Tonight He has given a Savior a Son! The angels all gather and worship as one. A star is proclaiming the place of His birth, and wise men draw near from the ends of the earth. In wonder we watch as their treasures unfold. They worship with myrrh with incense and gold. Come shepherds and angels, the great and the small, Gather and kneel to the Lord of all, Our Shepherd, glory, light. The highest to You, Jesus Christ! A-men.

LO! HOW A ROSE E'ER BLOOMING

Lo, how a Rose e'er blooming from tender stem hath sprung! Of Jesse's lineage coming as men of old have sung. It came, a Flowing bright, Amid the cold of winter when half-spent was the night. The shepherds heard the story proclaimed by angels bright, How Christ, the Lord of Glory, was born on earth this night. To Bethlehem they sped, And in a manger found Him, as heav'nly angels said. Three kings all their splendor searched for the infant King. Beneath a star they found Him, rich treasures did they bring; They bowed before the Savior, They worshiped and adored Him the Lord of every thing.
